We at Roach Ag Marketing, Ltd., Inc value our customer relationships and appreciate the trust that you have placed in us. As part of this relationship, and to provide you with financial products and services to meet your needs, you have provided private information about yourself. We pledge to protect that information and ensure that it remains private.

Pursuant to 17 C.F.R Part 160, Roach Ag Marketing, Ltd., Inc is hereby providing this Privacy Policy to our customers. The information in this policy summarizes the categories of information that we collect, how that information is handled, and how we protect your information.

We collect the following nonpublic personal information:

- Information provided on applications or other forms including, but not limited, to your social security number or employer identification number;
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others; and
- Information provided by a consumer reporting agency.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or our former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law.

We may disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform services on our behalf, our affiliated entities and/or to other financial institutions with whom we have execution agreements.

We restrict access of your nonpublic personal information to those employees who need the information to provide you with products or services.

Furthermore, to help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens and maintains an account. When you establish an account you provide your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask you to provide your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Please contact Roach Ag Marketing, Ltd., Inc to update your account with any material changes pertaining to your specific background and financial status.
